Customer Reviews

Maybe I'm biased because my professor is the author but this casebook is clear, well-organized, poses interesting questions, and Torts is probably the only class where I understand what is happening.

Really like this book, it's got a lot of good cases and notes. Could be better organized there to be more clear, with more in depth discussion of some key tort aspects rather than little brief sections on sometimes really unimportant issues.

Goldberg and Zipursky have a beautiful writing style and they are THE GUYS for torts.

This product is a staple for any Torts Class! My only complaint, if you can call it that, is the print is so small.
