The English Island Of Barbados

The English Island of Barbados

Maturin M. Ballou

Synopsis

• The English Island of Barbados • is a description of the Caribbean island of Barbados in the late nineteenth century. The author, Maturin Murray Ballou (1820-1895) was a Boston native who travelled extensively around the world and published several fiction and non-fiction books, as well as travel narratives. In the 1890s, Barbados was a British colony, having been first settled by the English in 1627. The island's main economic activity was sugarcane, sugar, and rum production. Bridgetown was its capital.
