Customer Reviews

I am really impressed with this book. It provided me with great information on Brazil, most of it I didn't even know, in an easy to read format. I often teach about different countries in my class and want the best information I can in an easy to read format. This book fits the bill.

This book is part of the Children's Press's A to Z series on countries of the world. This book is on Brazil. As with all the books in the series, this one is chock full of wonderful, brightly colored pictures. The book has information on everything from Animals and Buildings to Yearly Festivals and Zazpar (to set sail, in particular on the Portuguese discovery of Brazil). This is quite an excellent book. In a few short pages, it gives the reader a great introduction to Brazil. And, though this is listed as a Young Adult book, it is a great read for anyone who knows little about Brazil but wants to know a lot more!

I ordered this book to use for our Summer Activity Club. It contained a variety of facts that we were able to expand on as we represented Brazil. The children enjoyed looking at the colored pictures and coming up with ideas for crafts, games, etc.
